REPORT NO.

The following are centers of the Ustasa organization:

- a. Buenos Aires, Argentina. This is reportedly the main center and headquarters of Ante Pavelic, the Ustasa leader. Pavelic's principal collaborators are a certain Grnecki and a certain Lovrekovic.
- b. Madrid, Spain. Ustasa circles reportedly consider this the most efficient center. A certain Count Pejacevic was the main representative in this center but it has not been ascertained whether he still is or not.
- c. Klagenfurt, Austria. This center is represented by the "United Croats of Austria." A leading member of this group is a certain Mates.
- d. Rome, Italy. This center is headed by a certain Professor Vidale and his wife.
- e. Paris, France. Reportedly headed by the widow of a certain General Wolf. Allegedly a weak center.
- f. Unspecified locality in Canada. Headed by an Ustasa colonel named Dzal.
- g. Chicago. Headed by Dr. Lovro Susic, former Minister of Pavelic. All information from Europe and Canada reportedly passes through this center and from it to Pavelic.
